

Minnesota Mean:
The Students Take Measure

The Wall, The Round Table, and The Stage Proposal Form

Proposals should relate to the overall mission of the Guerrilla Girls Twin Cities Takeover—to promote individual and collective activism—or the show concept as suggested in the title. Minnesota “nice” superficially denotes how polite, reserved, and self-deprecating Minnesotans can be, but also refers to a specific propensity for passive-aggressiveness. So what is “Minnesota Mean?” Time to stand out, confront others, and embrace change? Students take measure!

- Due: Friday, November 6, 2015 at midnight
- Email proposals to Kerry Morgan at gallery@mcad.edu.
- All proposals will be reviewed for feasibility by a committee of faculty, students, and staff: Gretchen Gasterland-Gustafsson, Kindra Murphy, Kerry Morgan, Amber Newman (MFA student), Natasha Pestich, Lara Rodriguez, and Sara Suppan (BFA student and GG intern).
- Selected proposals announced: Friday, November 20
